Police decision near, Carmichael predicts

Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael said this week that he hopes for a decision "reasonably soon now" on future operation of Romulus' Police Department.

"The City Council, administration and the public have now had about as much information made available to them as is possible," Carmichael said Monday, adding:

"It is only fair now for all concerned that a decision be made so that those involved can make suitable plans and the business of the department be kept in order."

Carmichael's comments came following a week in which a public forum — attended by more than 100 persons — was held, prior to a regularly scheduled Tuesday night meeting of council.

Although the item was not on the council's early agenda for Tuesday night, Carmichael said he felt it would be "proper and probably expected" to be brought up for discussion either before or during the meeting.

"I think I can speak for both the administration and council in saying that our investigation into ways of improving the department have been both proper and necessary," the mayor said.

"We are interested only in determining what is the best — and best for the price — means of getting Romulus a properly staffed and operating police department as soon as possible.

Police departments are not items for political footbaling in my judgment and I don't think anyone wants Romulus' police department to become a political plaything.

"On the other hand, it takes considerable time and investigation to properly look at an item of this magnitude and importance. We want to make sure that every aspect of it has been analyzed — and then act.

"Our employees and our citizenry deserve to have a decision as soon as one can be properly made. Neither should be kept waiting."

The decision — which ultimately will be that of City Council — is whether to attempt to continue Romulus' current police operation (with 12 men and slender facilities) or to contract with Wayne County Sheriff's office for "full services" (including an 18 member permanent staff) immediately.

In addition to a number of meetings and discussions with Wayne County Sheriff's officials in recent weeks, Mayor Carmichael and several members of the Romulus Council were on hand at Romulus Junior High on Thursday night when Romulus Homeowners Association sponsored a Public Forum on the issue.

Among them were Council member James Stewart who joined Carmichael in calling the session "an excellent gathering."

Speakers were provided representing the Sheriff's Office, the state Police Officers Association and a local group (REMUS) calling for retention and improvement of the current Romulus Police department.

Written questions were then accepted from the audience and answered in most cases by the speakers.

Charles Kline, speaking for Remus, said that although improvement of the existing department in numbers and facilities to match those suggested in the contractual arrangement with Wayne County would be more expensive now, they would be "cheaper in the long run."

He then attacked Mayor Carmichael and challenged competency of the Sheriff's office to do the job.

Undersheriff Loren Pittman, representing the county, said that the contractual arrangement is a common practice in many communities until they have adequate money and facilities to complete their own department.

Romulus teachers study drug laws

A mounting concern about drugs on the part of lawmakers and legislators, plus a softening of attitudes on penalties for possession of marijuana were points noted by Romulus delegates who attended a drug panel and conference in Lansing Wednesday, Sept. 30.

Eight representatives from area PTA's attended a daylong conference on "Drug Abuse-A Search For Understanding".

The opening address was by Judge John B. Swanson, who is president of NARCO (Narcotics Addiction Rehabilitating Coordinating Organization). Panelists were: Dr. Herbert A. Raskin, M.D., E.J. McClendon, Department of Education, and Charles Wells, assistant superintendent of Detroit Public Schools.

A question and answer period was led by Professor Edward Lynn, from the Department of Psychology at Michigan State University.

Gov. William Milliken announced during a luncheon address, that he will propose drug combatting programs to the Legislature in January.

The package will include: Proposed school curriculum for drug education and teacher training workshops, expansion or treatment centers and increased efforts to find expansion of treatment centers and increased efforts to find employment for former addicts, better law enforcement, more research research into drugs and their effects and drug law reforms that would down-grade marijuana status from "narcotic" to "dangerous drug" classification.

Those who attended the conference from Romulus were: Mrs. MaryAnn Hearst, Mrs. Joy Lamberson, Mrs. Glenna Waddell, Mrs. Pat McDonnell, Mrs. Donna Gavin, Mrs. Evan Peire, Mrs. Robin Kring and Mrs. Shirley Linderman.

Romulus youth held in Wayne murder case

One of the three Romulus youths arrested Wednesday in the murder of a Wayne man, was transferred to Wayne County Juvenile Division of Probate Court after standing before Judge John C. Seiler in the 29th District Court yesterday afternoon.

The 17-year-old suspect was transferred to Judge James Lincoln's court because he was 16 years old when Alfred Platz, a 48-year-old blind library aide, was murdered Sept. 20.

The two other youths, aged 15 and 16, also will appear before Judge Lincoln. The judge will entertain a request by Wayne police that the juvenile proceedings be waived and their cases be tried in Circuit Court where the suspects would be treated as adults.

The two youngest suspects will be held in the Youth Home in Detroit pending Judge Lincoln's decision on the police request.

The three youths were taken into custody Wednesday after a 10-day investigation headed by Wayne Detective Donald Kendrick and Detective Arthur Torikian of the Wayne County Sheriff's Patrol.

Torikian was on special assignment authorized by Sheriff William Lucas after a request for assistance was made by Wayne Police Chief Walter D. MacGregor.

MacGregor cited the detectives' work as "outstanding" and added that such co-operation between police departments is vital and productive in fighting crime.

Candidate discusses issues

Douglas C. Rhoads, political newcomer and Republican candidate for Huron Township's supervisor post in the Nov. 3 general election stepped up his campaign for election Monday by issuing campaign statement and a request for community-wide support.

In a statement issued this week, Rhoads said:

"We are for You," expresses the feelings of the Rhoads' Team towards the citizens of Huron Township and it is also the theme of their campaign. Rhoads added:

"It is time for elected officials to start considering the needs and desires of the average taxpayer. If candidates don't intend to serve the best interest of the entire township they should not be elected."

The Rhoads team is comprised of:

Douglas Rhoads, 22150 Otter Rd., for supervisor; Mrs. Wilma Wilson, 36906 Huron River Dr., for clerk; Edward Helwig, 32593 West Rd., for treasurer; William Geirman, 1319 Will-Carlton Dr., for trustee; and Russell Wilson, 36906 Huron River Dr., for constable.

"The fact that our team is not concentrated in one portion of the township will help us keep in touch with the needs of the entire township," Rhoads said.

When asked about the present court action between the Huron School District and the Huron Township Board over the sewer tap charges, Rhoads commented:

"One of my first concerns, if elected, would be to get this out of the lawyers and sit down and work out a realistic compromise. I hate to see our tax dollars being wasted on attorney's fees when they could be utilized for so many other worthwhile projects."

The 29-year-old candidate announced that he would be happy to discuss any questions or problems with township residents. His phone number is 753-9343.

Boy Scout Camporees planned in October

Districts of the Detroit Area Council have scheduled Boy Scout Camporees during the weeks in October.

All Troops in a District will set up camp and take part in a planned program of competitive skills, Scoutcraft contests, and sports.

Thousands of Boy Scouts and their Leaders are making preparations now for the big District event when they will have the opportunity to enjoy a fall weekend with hundreds of other Troops. All meals and camp living will be organized by individual Troops of Boy Scouts under the leadership of Adult Scoutmasters.

The following District Camporees will welcome parents and the general public: Oct. 9, 10, 11 - Ambassador Bridge, D-Bar-A Scout Ranch; Huron District, Kensington Metropolitan Park; Mithigami District, Provincial State Park, Wheatley, Ontario; Northridge District, Holly Recreation Area; Sank Trail District, D-Bar-A Scout Ranch; Sunset District, Lower Huron Metropolitan Park.

Oct. 16, 17, 18 - Greenfield

District, Elmer Love's Estate; Lakeshore District, Kensington Metropolitan Park; Redford District, Hudson Mills Metropolitan Park; Springwells District, Lower Huron Metropolitan Park; State Fair District, D-Bar-A Scout Ranch; University District, D-Bar-A Pines camporee Area.

Oct. 23, 24, 25 - Downriver District, Lower Huron Metropolitan Park; Mt. Elliott District, Lakeport State Park; Oct. 30-1 - Cadillac Square District, Stoney Creek Metropolitan Park.

Intermediate School District gets drug education grant

A State grant from the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice has been received by the Wayne County Intermediate School District to develop and operate a Drug Abuse Education Program.

The DARTE Program (Drug Abuse Reduction Through Education) will train teams of educators and youth from Wayne County's 37 local school district districts in an effort to reduce drug abuse among youth.

Dr. Leonard S. Demak, formerly director of The Statewide Dissemination Service and REMIDY, a delinquency prevention project, and analyst with Designing New Careers, was appointed Project Administrator by the Intermediate Board of Education at the Sept. 30 regular board meeting.

"We hope to multiply the effect of this State grant with our educator-youth team approach. The trainees will return to their local school districts to initiate programs which we believe will:

"encourage students to make intelligent decisions regarding the use of drugs and to accept responsibility for their own health and behavior.

"slow the sharp upward trend in the misuse of mood-modifying substances by youth, and

"reduce the use of "hard" and/or physiologically and psychologically dependency-producing drugs," stated Program Administrator Demak.

PTO plans supper, open house Oct. 15

The Parent-Teacher Organization of Haggerty Road Elementary School (P.T.O.) will sponsor a Pancake Supper and Open House on Thursday, Oct. 15 from 5 to 7 p.m., Mrs. Irene Kuchta, publicity chairman, announced.

The Open House will immediately follow the pancake supper. Tickets are $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children.

The affair will present an excellent opportunity for parents to meet and discuss school activities with the teaching staff.

Members appointed

Gerald Budd and Ronald Christensen, members of the Romulus Board of Education have accepted appointments of delegate and alternate delegate to the Wayne County Occupational Education Advisory Committee.

The drug abuse education grant was developed with the help and support of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, Wayne County Department of Health, NARCO, and other agencies and school districts interested in supporting intermediate school district efforts to attack this critical need.

The DARTE Program offices are located in the Kales Building, 16th floor, 76 W. Adams, Detroit, Michigan 48226. Interested citizens may contact the DARTE offices by calling 962-1332.

The drug abuse education grant is for a period of one year, beginning Sept. 1, 1970. In addition to Dr. Demak, the program will employ two drug abuse education trainers.

Romulus plans big homecoming

"The Homecoming Parade this year will not be just for Romulus High School," said Brenda Blanton, parade chairman. "This year it will be for the entire city of Romulus," she emphasized.

Scheduled for Oct. 23 the parade will have "How The West Was Won" as its theme.

Brenda invited civic clubs, organizations, agencies, and councils to join the high school classes in competing for the trophy that will be awarded to the winning entry.

Those wishing to enter a float or car have until Oct. 16 to contact Brenda, at 722-3877, and pay the entry fee of $5.

Brenda is hoping for a big crowd along the parade route. Scheduled to assemble at 1:30 p.m. at the Junior High school, bands and floats will travel along Goddard to Tobine and on to the Senior High.

She also invited residents to come to the Romulus-River Rouge football game following the parade. Tickets will be available at the gate at $1.25 for adults.

Half-time activities, said Brenda, will feature coronation of the Homecoming Queen, performances by Romulus and River Rouge bands, and awarding the trophy to the best float or car in the parade.

She is planning for an exciting, community wide event.

HEARING ON POLICE CONTROVERSY - Romulus Homeowners Association sponsored an Open Forum at the Romulus Junior High School last Thursday night on the city's current controversy of "best available police protection for Romulus." City Council and Mayor are investigating police agencies including the possibility of contractual law enforcement with the Wayne County Sheriff's Office. Above is Loren Pittman, undersheriff, detailing what the sheriff's department can offer to the city if contracted to handle police matters in the city. The meeting was well conducted. No official decision has been made as yet by the city of Romulus.

Huron bus program gets approving nod

To the Editor:

The community spotlight this week rests on the Huron School District for their outstanding bus safety program.

The Huron District is recognized as a leader in the state of Michigan for their realization of greater safety measures necessary in busing children to and from their schools.

School boards across the state buy buses on the basis of three factors: They've got to be yellow. They've got to haul kids. And, they've got to be cheap.

The Huron School District has taken these three factors and added new dimensions. Their buses have to be durable. Their buses have to be better. And, most important, they have to be safe!

The buses for the Huron Schools are ordered with safety specifications well beyond the bare minimum the state and federal regulations call for.

Huron School Board members, Superintendent Antcliff, Assistant Superintendent Carl Renton, Transportation Supervisor Frank Brown, and Bus Mechanic Harry Nowitzke spend hours going over the specifications, talking to bus salesmen, looking at buses, comparing, weighing the safety, durability, economy of all makes and models.

The board is in the process of purchasing three new replacement buses. To do this, Leo Kyko closely scrutinized the specifications, coming up with additional recommendations for chassis safety and economy. Harry Hartsuff made inspections and recommendations for the chassis and the body. The board members all reviewed recent purchases and new buses. Mrs. Jean Richert has had articles published in School Bus Fleet concerning the board's policy of purchasing and operating the buses safely.

She also contributed time in the spring and summer, addressing the Michigan School Bus Supervisors Association at St. Mary's Lake and the Bus Drivers Training Schools in Belleville, Lapeer and Redford, on bus safety. Many of her unique recommendations for safety and cooperation in transportation are part of the policy of the Huron School District.

Lee Goodney, transportation consultant for the Wayne County Intermediate District has spent many hours in the Huron School District working with the school to make the bussing better for the children.

One of the most safety conscious men in his field, Goodney works closely with the drivers and administration to iron out any problems in transportation.

The Huron Schools bus drivers have a fine safety record and are extremely conscientious drivers. They operate under a policy that there shall be no children standing on their buses.

The Huron School District has continually made recommendations to bus companies for better safety equipment on their buses. They require all seats to be fully padded. The guard rails and the stanchion must be padded. There must be padding over the door. All of this prevents facial injuries and loss of teeth in sudden stops. They have the factory install non-fogging glass in the front windows which gives the driver greater visibility.

They require power steering and air brakes, giving the driver greater maneuverability of the bus. The mirrors are situated and curved to give the driver an all round look at the road and the sides of the bus. There are tell-tale lights inside to let the driver know immediately if the flashers are not working.

Both the body and chassis are purchased for durability, economy and safety. The Huron School District buys buses that are as safe as they can be made. They hire drivers that are responsible, alert and safety of your children. Aren't you glad they are?

Carl Morris to probe occupational education

Carl W. Morris and Norman O. Stockmeyer were elected by the executive board, as co-chairmen of the Wayne County Occupational Education Advisory Committee at its Sept. 21 organizational meeting.

Co-chairman Morris, 13599 Huron River Dr., Romulus, is presently serving as Treasurer of the Wayne County Intermediate Board of Education and President of the Romulus Board of Education.

In addition to his new duties as co-chairman of the Wayne County Occupational Education Advisory Committee, Stockmeyer, 38042 Glenwood, Westland, currently presides as the President of the Wayne County Intermediate Board of Education and Chairman of the Wayne State University Board of Governors.

The executive board of the Wayne County Occupational Education Advisory Committee has scheduled the first meeting for Thursday, Oct. 29, at the Cherry Hill Auditorium, 28500 Avondale Rd., Inkster.

At the Oct. 29 meeting, the following five important goals of the Advisory Committee will be discussed:

A "master plan" for a countywide approach to meeting the vocational-technical needs of Wayne County youth

Vocational-technical educational course offerings for a meaningful curriculum

Necessary financial structure for operation and construction of occupational education centers in Wayne County

Data on occupational needs in Wayne County

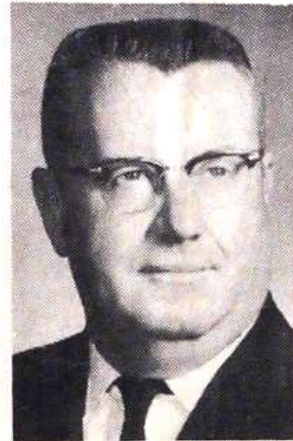

Establishment of communicative channels to inform all citizens in Wayne County about vocational-technical needs

Sub-committees studying each of these five key concerns of the Advisory Committee will be organized at the Oct. 29 meeting.

A final report of the Wayne County Occupational Advisory Committee providing the "master plan," the curriculum, financial needs, for several Wayne County Occupational Education Centers will be ready before Dec. 31.

Sunday School holds contest

The Rawsonville Baptist Church, 2146 Moeller Ave., Ypsilanti, is holding a Sunday School Contest this month, with free gifts being given away each week. New attenders can earn a ride in a helicopter by coming to Sunday School two Sundays - Oct. 4, 11 or 18.

Regular Sunday School attenders can also earn a helicopter ride by bringing a new person of any age to Sunday School Oct. 4, 11 or 18.

A Treasure chest has been set up in each of the Sunday School Departments and everyone receives a key to try to open the chest each Sunday. Each week a new surprise will be in the chest.

Everyone attending Sunday School on Oct. 4, 11 or 18 receives a free ticket to the "Round-Up" which will be held Oct. 24 on the church grounds beginning at 11 a.m. There will be free pony rides and free bus rides; also free free hotdogs and drinks, exhibits and displays.

The church is aiming for an attendance goal of 700 in October. The Sunday School begins weekly at 9:45 a.m.

Carmichael hopes to reach agreement agreements with nearly 500 different groups," he said.

Pittman pointed out that an agreement with the county would leave "local control with Romulus...but would assure full staffing at all times of whatever number of men are contracted for...plus complete backup (detectives, equipment and laboratories)."

He said that all members of Romulus' current police group would be absorbed by the County force at full county salaries and benefits (which are better than those currently provided in Romulus).

"There is no way possible the county can 'take over' or would even want to if it were possible," Pittman said. "The county, however, is obligated to make these police services available on a contractual basis to whomever wants them -- and the control must stay within the community."

"The county handles scheduling, payroll, pensions, bookkeeping and is responsible for filling in manpower from other sources if any of the contracted people are off duty for any reason (illness, courts, etc.)."

Deputy superintendent publishes a new book

Teacher Negotiations - A Guide for Bargaining Teams, offers realistic help to educators on both sides of the bargaining table as they negotiate teacher contract.

The book was co-authored by Dr. William C. Miller, Wayne County Intermediate School District's deputy superintendent, and Dr. David Newbury, assistant superintendent for instruction, Hazel Park Public Schools.

The 225-page book, recently published by Parker Publishing Company, lists the usual "do's and don'ts" for negotiating team members. In addition to these standard guidelines, current research on contract provisions is succinctly provided.

Issues raised by most common contract provisions are supplemented.

The Miller-Newbury negotiation handbook "tells it like it is." Such reality places teacher negotiations in the proper perspective and emphatically insists that schools exist to help children learn. Its major theme is that contractual agreements must be based on good data and that provisions in the agreement must be examined in terms of their impact on learning.

The major portion (Chapters 3-6) of the handbook contains a concise survey of pertinent research data, so necessary for intelligent decision-making.

The final portion (Chapter 7) presents the history, present status, and future of educational confrontation.

Meaningful involvement through the bargaining process will provide a more adult partnership between educators, their boards of education, a citizens.

Teacher negotiations - A Guide for Bargaining Teams stresses throughout that serving children is the common characteristic, the true community of purpose, that should guide bargaining teams.

Schools exist for one reason only - to educate our youth.

Dr. Miller and Dr. Newbury have produced a basic guide for educators involved in negotiations and for citizens interested in knowing and understanding more about how this vital educational process can improve schools and the education of our youth.

New housing project underway in Romulus

The first housing rental units to be built in the area under the special federal rent subsidy program for low income families are under construction in Romulus.

The new townhouse development, a 352-unit project, is being built just south of Metropolitan Airport. Model townhouses are open for inspection on Eureka Rd., west of Middlebelt Rd.

These are the first units built in this area under provisions of the Department of Housing and Urban Development's Section 236 program. HUD will supplement the rent payments of low-income families, making up the difference between the $124 rental charged and the market rent of $201.

The development is called Oakbrooke. The Republic Development Corp., formerly Rose-Hill Builders, is the developer.

New two-bedroom townhouses renting for a low as $114 a month, with carpeting, range and refrigerator, are under construction.

The development also has three-bedroom townhouses at a market rental of $226 or a subsidized rent of $137.

To qualify for the lower rents, a family of three cannot have a gross income of more than $7,000 yearly, a family of four can earn $7,800. A family of five can earn $8,200 and a family of six can earn $9,600.

But families or individuals earning more than these limits can live in Oakbrooke and pay the full market rents; $201 or $225. Most townhouse projects in this area have been cooperatives. Oakbrooke is strictly a rental community.

The development will have a total of 44 buildings, each with eight living units. Some of the structure are arranged around landscaped squares.

Band boosters to meet

The Romulus Band and Orchestra Boosters Club will hold a meeting tomorrow, Oct. 8, in the band room of the high school beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Band members as well as parents are urged to attend the meeting. An election of club officers will be held.

City seeks inspectors

The City of Romulus is now taking applications for part-time electrical inspectors.

Applications are available at the Romulus Building Department, 36572 Goddard Rd. Information may be obtained by calling 941-0666.

GRADUATED - Marine Corporal Albert J. Cichowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Cichowski 19619 Merriman Rd., Romulus, has graduated from Non-Commissioned Officer's Leadership School at Camp Jay K. Books, Vietnam.

Building okayed in Romulus

A building permit for the construction of an industrial tool shop for the Star Tool & Die Co., of 2401 23rd St., Detroit, in Romulus, has been issued by the Romulus Building Department.

Joseph B. Gallagher, building department manager, reported that the industrial tool shop will be built by R. Sturman Inc., builders, located at 17325 Dorset St., Southfield.

Estimated construction cost of the new one-story facility is $45,000. Building permit fees collected by the building department amounted to $187.

Skating party planned by scouts

Awards, plans for a skating party and a drawing were highlights of the evening when LeRoy Sims called Cub Pack 735 to order Thursday at Cory Elementary School.

Mrs. Gloria Chandler, pack reporter, announced that a skating party will be held on Monday, Oct. 26 at the Mayflower Roller Rink, 15064 Middlebelt Rd. between 6:30 and 10 p.m. She reminded cubs that this was a change of dates for the event.

Mrs. Carolyn Schultz was the winner of a 50-50 drawing, going home some fifty dollars richer for having bought a drawing ticket.

Steven Curley earned his Arrow of Light Award, indicating that he had completed the Tenderfoot requirements to be a Boy Scout.

Mrs. Donna Gavin's Den one had planned games for the pack followed by Halloween decorated refreshments prepared by the mothers of Mrs. Judy Martin's den three. Den four, with Mrs. Carolyn Schultz as den mother, took care of setting up chairs and tables and taking them down following the meeting.

Mrs. Dennessee Christopher and the boys of Den five were in charge of hospitality, greeting arrivals and making them welcome at the meeting. H. Sagert was announced to be the new Webelos leader. He will hold meetings on Friday evenings between 6:30 and 10 p.m. at his home, 34836 Michele Dr., Romulus.

HELP WANTED: MALE or FEMALE

Would you like to see a team of real professionals in the Township Hall?

So would a lot of other people.

But it can't be done with wishful thinking.

The PRO TEAM needs the help of every concerned citizen in this community.

It needs people who are willing to approach their neighbors and say: "This is our chance ... yours and mine ... to elect the best qualified team that ever ran for office in this township."

This IS our chance to have honest, competent, everything-on-the-table government in the Township Hall.

But we don't have a chance.

Not if we decide to "Let George do it."

This is YOUR community.

It's YOUR taxes they're spending.

It's YOUR land they're rezoning.

There's a good way to protect your township.

There's a good way to keep it the community you came here to find.

There's a good way to get your money's worth out of every tax dollar.

Would abolishing present system work?

On the eve of the last Presidential election in 1968, a fear grew that a close contest could lead to a deadlock in the Electoral College and a protracted delay in the selection of the next President. The fear proved groundless.

As it has for 200 years, the mechanism of the Electoral College worked smoothly, and Mr. Nixon assumed office on schedule. However, this did not prevent a movement getting underway in Congress to abandon the Electoral College in favor of direct election of the President.

The so-called Bayh amendment, to establish the direct election process passed the House of Representatives while many people were still disturbed over what considered to be a "near fiasco."

Since then, as Time magazine put it, "there have been some serious second thoughts," about the merits of the Bayh amendment. The theoretically, direct election of a President would be a simple process; but, as Time points out, "opponents are arguing that it might well be even more chaotic and dissatisfying than the Electoral College system."

If there should be a deadlock among candidates in the direct election of a President, the loser would be compelled to ask for a nation wide recount of votes which could hold up the election outcome for weeks.

Time concludes, after a lengthy discussion of the direct election proposal, "Changing the method of electing a President will not merely change how votes are counted... there is a possibility, not yet fully appreciated, that the entire political makeup of the country might be affected in ways yet unanticipated and unexplored."

Debate over methods of electing a President has shown one thing: representative government and the freedom we enjoy under it is a highly perishable commodity.

State taxes went up in 1969...surprised?

By ELMER E. WHITE Secretary, Michigan Press Association

If you have the feeling you paid more taxes than ever last year, you were right.

The "average" Michigan resident, including every man, woman and child, paid $428 in state and local taxes alone during 1969, according to a report drawn up by Commerce Clearing House.

That represented an increase of $61 per person over fiscal 1968, according to the survey.

And it ranked Michigan eighth in the nation in per capita taxation.

It may not help much to add this, but at least Michiganders weren't alone. The study shows the per capita taxation rose in every state of the union.

The average payment was only $380, however, $48 less than Michigan, and the average increase was $42 per person, $19 less than Michigan.

New York led all states with an average high of $576 in state and local taxes for every resident, while Arkansas was low with $221 per person.

Median state was Montana, with a total of $351 per person.

State and local taxation has become such a big business now that 23 states passed the $1 billion mark last year.

For the first time, in fact, the $10 billion mark was passed as New York raked in $10.5 billion and California fell just shy of that mark.

Illinois and Pennsylvania each took in more than $4 billion while Michigan was one of those states collecting more than $3 billion.

The per capita state and local tax burden has increased 52 per cent, from $250 per person, in the past five years alone.

New school dedication Sunday

By DALE KAULITZ, Superintendent of Van Buren Schools

We hope you will reserve a couple of hours Sunday for dedication and open house at the beautiful new North Junior High School.

The program of dedication will begin at 3 p.m. in the gymnasium. North Junior High School is located on McBride St., just east of Beck Rd.

Those who attend the program will have the privilege of hearing an address by one of the finest speakers in the nation — Dr. Harold E. Sponberg, president of Eastern Michigan University.

Over the years, Dr. Sponberg has received national recognition for his accomplishments in oratory and debate. As an undergraduate student at Gustavus Adolphus College in Minnesota, he received the Schleuder Medal, an award given annually to the outstanding scholar-athlete. In 1952 he was awarded the Doctor of Philosophy degree with distinction at Michigan State University.

In addition to an excellent speaker for Sunday's program, we will be privileged to witness a colorful flag presentation by the John M. Wahl Women's Relief Corps No. 87, Belleville.

An American flag, complete with staff and standard, will be donated to North Junior High. The V.F.W. Honor Guard — Huron River Post No. 4434 — will also participate in the flag ceremony.

Music for Sunday's program will be provided by our Belleville High School Choir and Symphony Band. Both of these organizations are recognized for their excellence.

The new North Junior High School was built at a cost of $2,831,835. Funds for this project came from a $4.5 million bond issue approved by voters in 1965.

Other projects completed, or being completed, with funds from the 1965 bond issue include the administration building, high school auditorium,

Education key to drug problem

By HENRY CANTIN

Education holds the only real hope for licking the problem of drug abuse among teenagers.

This is the opinion of Miss Marie Bailey, youthful Catholic Youth Organization social worker who has been serving for the last year as researcher and consultant for SHAR-Understanding, a community-service project which was founded by two former addicts.

With this opinion we wholeheartedly agree and add that education on the dangers of drug abuse for teenagers should also apply to adults, especially parents of teenage children.

The problems of drug abuse among our youth has become a local as well as a national matter of grave concern. It warrants the undivided attention and cooperation of all.

Court officials and area law enforcement officers whose task is the handling of youthful narcotic law violators report that if education on the dangers of drug abuse had been part of the early training of the youthful offenders, arrests by narcotic bureaus would drop considerably.

Through a speaker's bureau, a library and the distribution of literature on drug abuse, SHAR-Understanding seeks to awaken the community to the appalling effects of addiction.

Drug education in our opinion should become a permanent part of the curriculum in all area schools, both private and public. So much heart-break can be averted if we can get to our youth before they get "hooked."

SHAR-Understanding is trying to do this. They have our full support. For those who want to assist call 963-7172.

School officials and community leaders can initiate a program on drug education by scheduling talks by narcotic law experts and even demonstrations on the dangerous effects on drug abuse. I am sure that our law enforcement agencies would comply with a school's request for such presentations.

Getting back to Miss Bailey, she adds, "Drug addiction is not the exclusive problem of ghetto youth. This evil cuts across every economic and ethnic strata. It can hit anybody, and it does."

Drug abuse is a national disaster, and we aren't doing very much about it."

In celebration of National Newspaper Week Oct. 4 to 10, the State Department of Education calls attention to the State Library's collection of "Michigan Newspapers on Microfilm," some 30,000 reels of film containing editions that date back to 1917.

The films are available for viewing at the State Library in Lansing or through inter-library loans to public and private libraries throughout the world.

Despite efforts of local wardens, currently handicapped by lack of personnel, for community-wide compliance to provisions of the local dog ordinance, some area residents are permitting their animals to run at large.

Pet owners, who persist in violating laws enacted for their and their neighbor's protection as well as their pets should be severely dealt with by law officers.

Complaints received prompts this request.

Where were the GOP helpers when needed?

To the Editor:

This last week I received a phone call from the Republican group telling me we must "clean up" the government in Van Buren Township, and that the Republicans are the ones to do it.

I was amazed at their attitude, to say the least. I thought our township was cleaned up pretty good in the primary election by not voting the Stoelton Team back in office. The man that accomplished this was Rodney Bly, not the Republicans.

It really upset me to think that after Mr. Bly has been sticking his neck out for the past two years trying to make the people of our township aware of the poor government we had, to now hear these people say how they are going to clean up our township.

Mr. Bly was the one that started that "clean up" and I'm sure he is the one qualified to continue with the job. I ask you, where were all these brave Republicans when Mr. Bly was using his time and efforts on our behalf?

J.D. Moody

'I don't want to pay any more taxes'

To the Editor:

What is meant by "Incorporation to be Major Campaign Issue" as indicated on the front page of your last Belleville Enterprise? It says that Mr. Bly wants to make a Charter Township of Van Buren. This was voted down a few years ago, as I remember, because it would increase our taxes from one mill to five mills and do nothing for us. Could it be that Mr. Bly needs the money to carry out the campaign promises that he is making?

I for one do not want to give Mr. Bly the authority to tax an additional four mills. Can't he at least wait until he is elected before he tries to put the bite on us?

'Mr. Clean' dies after long illness

To the Editor:

OBITUARY

Mr. Clean Political Campaign, a short term resident of Huron Township, has died after a long, lingering illness. He was the victim of the smear, the big lie, and innuendo. He leaves to mourn his passing the citizens who believe that their community was a better place while he was alive. An investigation is being made as to the exact cause of death. Citizens are warned that the disease may be contagious if you do not inoculate yourself with facts and quarantine the source of contagion.

Kissinger is only Nixon 'turf-grabber'

By Charles Bartlett

Members of the "Big Six", the new top team at the White House, are proud that so far they have managed to avoid the struggle for power which traditionally absorbs the men around a President. The only enlarged ego in the group belongs to Henry Kissinger and he has foreign policy all to himself. Robert Finch, John Ehrlichman, George Shultz and Donald Rumsfeld are not "turf-grabbers" by instinct and they take their cue from Robert Haldeman, who plays "Mr. Inside" in a low key. The White House staff will be further streamlined toward the end of the year to get set for the 1972 elections.

The Senate's plan to meet in a lame-duck session has bred confidence in the White House that the family assistance program will be passed this year. Nose-counts indicate welfare reform has enough votes in the Senate and if the Finance Committee refuses to report the measure, it will be proposed as an amendment to the Social Security legislation. The only danger seems to lie in the possibility of a filibuster but Majority Leader Mike Mansfield is prepared to resist these tactics.

The White House is pressing the Federal Reserve Board to hasten the revival of the economy with what Walter Heller has called "a richer monetary diet." The President's economists, although heartened by all the indices, are afraid the recovery will be painfully slow and they would like the Fed to loosen its restraints more quickly. But veterans of the 1968 upswing still dominate the Board and they recall that by stepping too hard on the gas, they produced a roaring inflation. So the mood at the Fed is extremely cautious. Nixon economists meanwhile shrug off suggestions that they still need an incomes policy. Instead they claim success for their "hands-off" philosophy.

The U.S. AID program will be a big loser if Chile's government falls under communist control. In the past eight years AID has pumped over $1 billion into this country of 10 million people. The Christian Democrats are so badly split that Salvador Allende's election as president October 24 now seems highly probable. The communists shrewdly refuse to be provoked into any form of street fighting which might give the army an excuse to take over.

Democratic candidates trying to get Lyndon Johnson to campaign for them are now having much luck. The ex-President is making his weight felt in Texas politics but this effort is prompted, friends believe, by anxiety to influence the presidential choice of the Texas delegation in 1972.

purchase and renovation of the Hennels industrial building to be used for a vocational education building and purchase of a site for a new elementary school building.

North Junior High is built on a 40-acre site purchased by the Board of Education on November 1966 from Ford Motor Company at a cost of $53,500. Size of the building is approximately 125,000 square feet. T.R. Jahr Associates of Dearborn provided the architectural services.

Attend the program of dedication at 3 p.m. Sunday and follow it up with a tour of this fine new facility.

West Horsemen plan show at 4-H grounds

The Sixteenth annual Horse Show sponsored by the Western Horsemen's Association will benefit the Downriver Association for Retarded Children.

This is the first Michigan Registered Quarter Horse Show, sanctioned by the National Horsemen's Association, and is to be held on Sunday, Oct. 11.

The gates will open at 9 a.m., until approximately 5 p.m., at the 4-H Belleville 4-H Fairgrounds, located on Quirk Road, at I-94. Use the Belleville Rd. exit.

A fine show is lined up: approximately 800 horses and riders from three states will vie for points to accumulate for yearly total. There will be clowns; a Cowboy and Indian and Trooper act performed by the Moslem Americans (Shriners).

A lucky ticket holder may top this eventful day by driving away the beautiful first Prize a 1970 Dodge Swinger; or second Prize, color T.V. and 25 transistor radios.

Tickets are available at the entrance gate for 50 cents each or 3 for $1. Each ticket allows one person entry to the show and a chance to win the prizes. There will be refreshments and free parking.

The proceeds from the show will help the DRARC to maintain and operate the Down River Industrial Vocational Enterprises (DRIVE) which is located at 412 Thirteenth St., Wyandotte, and employs the trainable retarded adults 21 years and over.

Commissioners take some major action

Among major actions of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners at last week's meeting concerned welfare, possible merger of the Detroit and Wayne County health departments, expansion of the county human relations staff, filling of a board vacancy, and modernization of record-keeping at the county jail.

The board approved the expenditure of an additional $9,986,000 for welfare assistance this year - an outlay necessitated by a sharp increase in unemployment. All but $145,000 of the outlay will be reimbursed by the state.

In a related action, the board adopted a resolution called for a meeting with top state officials to try to resolve the long-running conflict with the state over the responsibility for emergency grants to welfare recipients.

The resolution calls for a meeting "within 20 days" with Gov. William Milliken; his Democratic opponent, State Sander Levin; both parties' leaders in the state legislature; the state social services director; and representative of other urban counties.

However one commissioner declared his intention to demand reconsideration of the resolution, which would delay action until the next board meeting Oct. 15.

The Board of Commissioners also heard a plea from organized recipients of Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) for a $75 clothing grant for each school-age ADC child in the county. There are 76,000 such children. The county has taken the position that such grants are a state responsibility. The state social services director has refused the request.

The commissioners voted to join the Detroit Common Council in establishing a joint committee to study the feasibility of consolidating the Detroit and county health departments. Consolidation was urged by the city-county health director, Dr. George Pickett, when he declared his intention to resign at the end of October.

Addition of a three-member contract compliance unit to the Wayne County Office of Human Relations was also approved at a full-year cost of $28,337.

The unit will review the employment practices of present and future bidders for county contracts to ascertain that they are adhering to the non-discrimination clause contained in county contracts.

The board appointed Lincoln Park City Clerk William G. Suzore to the District 22 vacancy created by the resignation of Albert R. DeBiasi, who was appointed to an Allen Park Municipal Court vacancy. Suzore defeated DeBiasi for the District 22 Democratic nomination in the Aug. 4 primary. His appointment is for the term ending Dec. 31, 1970.

An application for $60,000 in Federal funds to help finance complete computerization of record-keeping at the county jail was also approved.

Members of the new Wayne County Stadium Authority, and their terms, are:

Thomas B. Adams, advertising executive and chairman of the stadium working group, six years; Alfred M. Pelham, former Detroit controller and retired county budget director; five years; Thomas F. Aschcraft, an urban specialist with a Detroit bank; four years; Richard J. Oszustowicz, Wyandotte General Hospital controller, five years; and Detroit controller Robert P. Roselle, four years.

Bellevillites wed

Westland church site of Held-Mach Nuptials

In a September 25 ceremony at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Westland, Gina Lynn Mach became the bride of Ronald Charles Held.

The nuptial rite, read by Rev. Walter Henning, united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mach of 45071 Venetian, Belleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Schaefer of 48024 Bemis Road, Belleville.

Carrying a cascade arrangement of eucharis lilies and stephanotis, the bride appeared in an ivory satin gown made by her mother. Appliques of guipure lace were used to distinguish the high-rise neckline, bodice and bishop sleeves. The lace motif was repeated on the high-rise waistline, the hemline and again on the chapel train.

Guipure lace also formed the medallion cap which secured the bride's illusion veil which drifted to elbow length.

MRS. DAVID MEDLEY of Belleville was her sister's honor attendant. She, too, wore a frock made by Mrs. Mach as did the quintet of bridesmaids. Styled of toffee-colored satin peau, the dress featured leg-of-mutton sleeves and an empire waist. The bodice, sleeves and skirt were accented with bands of ruffled ecru lace.

Identical sun gold creations were worn by Mrs. Lorne Cook of Detroit and Dianne Mach of Inkster, both cousins of the bride; Paula McGhen of Romulus; Teresa Bies of Belleville; and Tammy Schaefer, the bridegroom's sister.

The baskets they held were filled with daisy chrysanthemums in yellow and bronze with streamers of ecru ribbon.

Best man was Richard F. Held, the bridegroom's brother from Belleville. The corps of ushers included Lorne Cook of Detroit; John L. Welt of Belleville; Ralph Hendrix of Flint, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Gary Held, a brother; and Doug Eye of Belleville.

THE GARRISON HOUSE in Garden City was reserved for the reception which followed the seven o'clock ceremony. Mrs. Mach, in greeting the 300 guests, wore a blue chiffon dress with matching accessories and a corsage pink sweetheart roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a royal purple crepe with chiffon sleeves and corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

Following a two week honeymoon camping trip to Gettysburg, Mammoth Caves, the Smokey Mountains, and northern Michigan, the newlyweds will return to Belleville where the bridegroom will complete his 30-day leave. He will then be stationed at Lakenheath Air Force Base in England where his wife will join him in another month. After their two to three year stay on English soil, they will make their home in the Belleville area.

The new Mrs. Held graduated from Belleville High School and from the State College of Beauty. She has been employed at Ginie's Beauty Salon, Belleville.

Ron also graduated from Belleville High and prior to joining the U.S. Air Force worked at Hydra-matic. Currently classified as Airman First Class, he is assigned to work on jet engines.

It's a boy!

The birth of their first child, a son, is being announced by Mr. and Mrs. Noah P. Bergeron, Jr. of 12394 Wahrman Road, Romulus. Arriving at Oakwood Hospital, Dearborn, September 29, his weight was recorded at 4 lbs. — 14 oz.

The new heir, titled Noah Peter, III, is the grandson of the senior Noah P. Bergerons of Wayne and the John Ryzars of Romulus.

More steak appears on the family table as take-home pay increases. In 1955 families were eating about the same amount of steak and ground beef, each 30 percent of the total beef consumed. A decade later the steak share rose to 41 percent and ground beef dropped to 25 percent.

European journey

TAKING PART IN a recent V.F.W. sponsored European tour were four Belleville ladies — Leona Agge, Gertrude Wollenberg, Marie Ocholik, and Kathryn Crosslin. Representing the area's V.F.W., they were among the 24 posts and auxiliaries taking part.

Leaving Metro Airport Sept 5, they flew to Kennedy Airport in New York, then transferred to K.L.M. Royal Dutch Airlines for the jaunt to Amsterdam, Holland.

The group attended a world-famous puppet show, the Cabaret Marionettes, in Rothsberg, Germany and danced to the music of a German band at a local wine cellar.

In Innsbruck, Austria they attended a Tyrolean Abend at the Maria Therese Hotel and in Venice traveled the city via gondola with gondoliers serenading.

Other special memories include a daytime cruise down the River Rhine and an evening boat ride on the Seine River in France.

Other high points during their stay in France were a day of sightseeing at the Palace de la Concorde, Napoleon's tomb, and dinner in the Eiffel Tower dining room where three birthdays were celebrated (including Leona Agge's) complete with cake, candles and all the birthday trimmings. An evening at the Casino de Paris rounded out that special day.

Other trips included Pisa, Italy to view the Leaning Tower and Holland, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, and Belgium.

The group traveled 3,000 miles by motor coach and 7,400 by air with drives through the Bavarian Alps, Tyrolean Alps, Italian Alps, and the Appennine Mountains. They also motored through Brenner Pass and Simplon Pass into Switzerland while counting 253 curves and about 20 tunnels and dodging falling rocks and road repairs. The altitude was 6,000 feet at the highest point with the growth of trees halting at 5,300 feet.

On their return to Schiphol Airport in Holland, the group was detained for four hours because of hi-jacking. They also experienced a luggage X-ray, small bag and purse checks, and body check by security officers.

Tired but happy, the contingent returned to home soil Sept. 19, all glad to be back in the U.S.A.

Baumann's are back

ANOTHER PAIR undergoing the hi-jack routine along with a bomb scare were Norman and Ethel Baumann of Ozga Road, Romulus. They were delayed at Lisbon Airport and had to return sans luggage because of the possible threat.

But that was at the conclusion of the trip which began September 6 from Metro Airport. Winging their way to Lisbon, the Baumanns spent several days there, visiting Fatima and the northern portion of the country. Entering Spain, they extended last year's vacation by adding to and retracing many points of interest.

Morocco was new on their itinerary this year and Ethel says, one visit was enough for her. Experiencing 125 degree heat with no water readily available (all water is bottled and sold for consumption) should explain her reaction to the country. A very primitive land, she continued, people are either very rich or very poor. There's no middle class. The casbah area, she says, is centuries behind in civilization and sanitation with many women still wearing the face-covering veils.

Junior Study Club sets card party for October 21

The Junior Study Club of Belleville will sponsor its 10th annual benefit card party Wednesday, Oct. 21, at South Junior High School. Tickets for the 7 p.m. event are currently on sale by all club members and at Box's Jewelry Store where hope chest items, to be raffled the night of the party, are currently on display.

A red, white and blue color scheme has been employed in the hooked rug, table cloth, bath linens, and various other items which were assembled by club members. Tickets for the hope chest are 10 cents each or three for 25 cents and may also be obtained from club members.

Lilyan Carlson, chairman of this year's event, cordially invites the public to attend the party. Proceeds from the annual gathering are used for various charities and in the past have benefited the local hospital, library, and schools.

So plan to meet your friends for an evening of cards or the game of your choice. Circle that date — Oct. 21 — on your calendar.

Susan Wahrman marries

Gatlinburg honeymoon follows autumn vows

St. Paul's Lutheran Church, New Boston, was the scene September 12 of the wedding of Susan Kay Wahrman and Jerry Allan Cichowski. Lighted candles, white gladiolas and chrysanthemums adorned the altar for the double ring ceremony read at six thirty by the Rev. Daniel Richert.

Some 200 guests witnessed the nuptial rite and enjoyed the music of organist Bob Walton. Two vocal selections were sung by Mrs. Daniel Richert, "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wahrman of 15660 Wahrman Road, Romulus, and Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cichowski of 19619 Merriman Road, Romulus.

Given in marriage by her father, Susan chose a gown of candlelight satin fashioned in the A-line with bishop sleeves. Re-embroidered lace, with delicate pink rosebuds, accented the dress and chapel train. A pale pink satin band, tracing the empire waistline, matched her pink satin shoes.

Her silk illusion veil was caught to a Camelot cap and she carried a cascade of pink rose buds.

ASSISTING AS maid of honor was Kathy Stears of Romulus. Her formal A-line frock featured a pink top, raspberry skirt, bishop sleeves, and a high-rise bodice. Her headpiece was a bow and flowers edged with a short tulle veil and her bouquet was comprised of miniature pink carnations.

Bridesmaids in identical ensembles were Deborah Wahrman, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Thomas Onstatt of Mt. Pleasant.

Serving as flowergirl was the bridegroom's cousin, Laurie

Schwartz, the 10-year-old daughter of the Ralph Schwartz. Her frock was a miniature of the bridesmaids' dresses and the basket she carried was filled with white carnations and mums.

Ten-year old Billy Cichowski served as ringbearer at his brother's wedding.

Gary Petterson of Romulus carried out the duties of best man and ushers were Randy Cichowski and Tim Cichowski, brothers of the bridegroom; and David Green of Miami, Florida, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wahrman chose a beige lace coat-dress ensemble with brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother donned a pink coat-dress costume with silver accessories. Both mothers were presented with corsages of pink carnations and rose buds.

A reception and buffet dinner followed in the parish hall after which the newlyweds departed for a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee. They are now making their home in Belleville.

The new Mrs. Cichowski is a Romulus High School graduate now employed at Moeller Manufacturing, Belleville. Her husband graduated from Huron High School and is an employee of Antosik and Son, Romulus.

Camerons

welcome

Elizabeth Ellen

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cameron of 46405 Harris Road, Belleville, have a new daughter. Making her debut Sept. 21 at Annapolis Hospital, Wayne, Elizabeth Ellen weighed in at 8 lbs. — 3½ oz.

The Camerons first child, Elizabeth is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prais of Belleville and Mr. and Mrs. John Kululka of Chicago.

The new mother is the former Cathie Prais.

HOPE CHEST ITEMS — Members of the Junior Study Club of Belleville are once again making plans for their benefit card party which is scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 21. The hope chest raffle will be conducted as in the past and this year the club has used a red, white and blue theme for their creative work. The items, now on display at Box's Jewelry Store Belleville, are shown by three club members (left to right) Betty Keric, Martha Conley, and Lilyan Carlson who is general chairman of the event.

Teen diet

In the active world of teenagers adequate diets often are forgotten. Six out of ten teenage girls and four out of ten teenage boys have poor diets because of their eating habits. Among the reasons for these improper diets are: skipping breakfast, eating nutritionally poor snacks, believing that eating makes one fat, and considering outside activities more important than eating.

Serve double-decker beef-burgers on double-header baseball afternoons to keep the fans satisfied. The twin patties stacked for each beef-burger may be divided with lettuce leaves, a tomato slice, catsup, pickle relish or flavored cheese spread after they're broiled.

Scenes from Belleville Kiwanis installation and ladies night

Classmates meet

REUNITED FOR the first time in 26 years, Belleville High's class of '44 gathered Saturday, September 26, at the UAW Hall on Ecorse Road. Some 77 classmates and spouses made their way to Belleville traveling from such distant spots as California, New York, Indiana, and Ohio with the majority coming from the Michigan cities of Hillman, Benton Harbor, Orchard Lake, Plymouth, Wayne, Milan, Farmington, Westland, Detroit, Pontiac, Ann Arbor, Bloomfield Hills, Dearborn, Chelsea and Lake Orion. Many who've remained in the Belleville and Romulus areas also put in an appearance.

A committee of eight couples who had worked on plans for the reunion for some 10 months, were very pleased with the response and felt it was a very successful party.

Especially for the get-together, a booklet was printed containing brief resumes' from all who'd responded. Covered in the class colors of blue and yellow, it helped carry out the theme for the evening. Each committee member contributed a yellow centerpiece and candles for the eight tables which were arranged beneath a canopy of blue and yellow streamers. Potted yellow mums, which decorated the front of the stage, were later given as door prizes.

Festivities got underway with a cocktail hour at six followed by a buffet dinner at eight and dancing and reminiscing for the remainder of the event.

Ends summer residence

MRS. WILBERT BIRK of Denton Road has returned to her home after spending the summer months at her cottage on Big Manistique Lake at Curtis, Michigan. She visited many friends and also traveled to the Upper Peninsula's Copper Country twice during the summer.

Guests during her stay included Miss Hilda Schutteiss of Ann Arbor and Mr. W. Pluck and Miss Carol Dempsey and her father from Ypsilanti.

Alyce returns

ALYCE CURRY has returned to Rota, Spain after flying home to attend the funeral of her grandfather, Roy Curry of Brimley. Alyce, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Curry of Robbe Road, is employed by the government at the Naval Base in Rota.

She also visited friends in Belleville and relatives in the Upper Peninsula during her week-long stay in the States.

Coffee break tidbits

A cent and a half won't buy a cup of coffee from the vending machine but that's what it costs the housewife to brew according to a recent edition of Coffee: Economic Impact, published by the World Coffee Information Center.

Even though it may be a small cup you're drinking from, next to petroleum, coffee is the largest world trade item going. Once more, an estimated 20,500,000 people in Latin America and other countries depend on your coffee appetite.

Gulp this one down... a one-cent-a-pound drop in price of green (raw) coffee amounts to an annual loss of approximately $65 million in foreign exchange earnings for the 41 coffee exporting countries around the world.

But let's look at it from another angle. The report says, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, coffee has only increased 1.6% in the 1960-1969 decade and the average price of 85.6 cents a pound is about the same as 19 years ago!

Don't you wish the rest of the economy would take the hint? In 1960 further evidence of the good buy is that it required 21.6 minutes of labor (U.S. factory worker) to buy a pound of coffee; in 1969, only 15.1 minutes.

Michigan ranks third of all the states as a leading exporter to these countries, just slightly behind Illinois and Ohio at $388,733,000! The foreign trade stimulates 26,878 jobs for Michiganders and more than $227 million in wages.

Think about this at your next cup of coffee... the bean does more than grease the cog, that gets the mind rolling for the work at hand in the morning. Now, if these facts fail to impress and if you're a gardener, one contributor relayed this last tidbit, that coffee grounds make great fertilizer.

General tendencies: A very strange day and evening again. Now you need to get your affairs on a solid and secure basic structure instead of expanding as you wished to do yesterday. You find that all kinds of upsets can follow taking a definite new stand, so postpone until a more favorable day comes.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You must first get a pesty problem well ironed out before getting into new activities that appeal to you. Add to present prestige. Know what it is that a higher-up wants of you and try to please. Be conscientious.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) You have many fine ideas in the morning, but you may not be able to get them working until later in the day. Being on the alert will save you from a stranger who is trying to talk you into doing something you do not like.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) You have some agreement to keep in a conscientious way. Otherwise you could incur the ire of higher-ups. Showing understanding where a loved one is concerned helps during a period of stress. Make kindness your motto in the future.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) Sit down with an associate and work out plans for a special social affair, recreations you mutually are looking forward to. Then carry through in a positive fashion.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) Delve into all that work ahead of you and do it most efficiently and consistently so that you gain favor of higher-ups. Take treatments that make you a happier and healthier person. Avoid arguments that are bad for your nerves.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Getting into what you most like to do requires some preparation first and paying attention to detail. The right congenials will go along with you. Avoid getting into controversial subjects.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Plan how to please those at home so that they are happier. Take the time to plan outside project that will add considerably to your present abundance. It may be necessary to work until late tonight. Do so.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Making sure to direct your energies along safe lines is very important today. Don't say anything that could cause others to get angry. Making out reports accurately is vital today. Get plenty of sleep tonight.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Look into the monetary part of your negotiations today so that you do not feel the pinch later on. An admirer can give you the greatest of help today. Accept the advice of this experienced person gratefully.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have the assistance of an old friend today, so be sure to listen carefully to what is being advised. You need to do some extra work to gain that personal desire you want so much. Avoid needless worry.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You have to do some investigative work in order to reach that goal later which means so much to you. A good friend requires your assistance. Be sure to give it. Stop posing so many hypothetical questions to others.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) A close friend may have the date you require, but this is not the right day to go after it. If you work on new ideas instead, you make big headway now. Showing others that you are sure of yourself is fine.

If your child is born today...he or she will be one of those fascinating young people who will want to have a secure structure on which to build early in life. You would do well to give a standard type of education. In this way your firm-footed progeny will make the greatest success in life, and this might do much to get you thinking along more orthodox lines as well. The fields of real estate and banking are fine.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you.

Love and war — Young fellow, did you ever drink a toast out of your girlfriend's slipper? That was the custom of old. Most romantic. However, if you should decide to revive this titillating touch, bear in mind researchers at the Harvard Medical School have discovered the average lady's slipper holds better than 10 shots of whiskey, and that's overmuch.

Personal note — Client inquires if I ever attended a cat show. Only one. That was in Texas about 10 years ago. A charity event at the Houston Club. And I report the details to you now because they were extraordinary. Just as the judge was about to identify the best of those 300 cats in attendance, some humorist tossed a fast fat mouse into the arena. Listen, it was just wild! The spitting, hissing, snarling, squealing. The mouse got away, I think. But all the cats had to be jammed into cages, and everybody went home feeling shaky, like after a bad wreck.

'Slow Dance' exciting

The Detroit Repertory Theatre presents "Slow Dance on the Killing Ground," a drama in three acts by William Hanley, directed and set by Bruce E. Millan, scenic artist John Knox, lighting by Dick Smith. At the Detroit Repertory Theatre, 13103 Woodrow Wilson, through Nov. 30, with the following cast: W. Paul Unger, Council Cargle, Barbara Busby.

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Drama Critic

Bruce E. Millan, whose Detroit Repertory Theatre in past years has perpetrated some of the worst plays ever seen in Detroit—one still shudders at last year's Pirandello—seems determined to break with the past.

This season's calendar includes such impressive efforts as the Detroit premiere of Genet's masterpiece, "The Blacks." And things kicked off last week with an equally exciting production of William Hanley's just acclaimed "Slow Dance on the Killing Ground."

The killing ground is the world and not the best of all possible worlds either. Three lost souls, an elderly German immigrant, a pregnant, unattractive Jewish girl from the Bronx and a hostile black genius seek a brief respite in the German's drab Brooklyn candy shop.

None of them are especially open to the world. In fact they all affect disguises to one extent or the other, the black hiding behind a black cape and shades, the girl in a blonde wig as a pretense to glamor and the shopkeeper wearing a fake concentration camp number as his own private atonement for an act of cowardice with which he can not live, deserting his Jewish wife to the Nazis during World War II.

If the German considers himself a killer—he was a railroad engineer who transported Jews to the concentration camp—the Negro is one in reality, having just murdered his mother, a prostitute who served as a constant reminder that despite an IQ of 185 he is an outcast from society. And the girl is about a murder as she stumbles into the shop en route to an abortionist.

Putting alienated people together and letting them work off their aggressions on each other is nothing new, but Hanley's craftsmanship is more meticulous than most and his characters more realistically and finely drawn.

Millan's sensitive staging is complemented by carefully drawn performances by W. Paul Unger as the German and Council Cargle as the black, studiously avoiding the temptation to overplay roles which could easily become histrionic. They, and Barbara Busby, whose performance as the girl is also sensitive despite the blatant list to her Bronx accent, interplay with each other in an ensemble performance.

All are Detroit Repertory regulars who have played with each other before. The familiarity shows in the unity of the performance.

Judged by its opening, the Detroit Repertory Theatre is off to its best start in years.

BUTTERFLY WEED—New members who join the Michigan Audubon Society during October will have their choice of this full-color lithograph, "Butterfly-Weed" by Anne Ophelia Dowden, or another, "Kirtland's Warbler" by Guy Coleleach, as a gift.

Audubon Society offers lithographs to new members

A statewide membership campaign of the National Audubon Society has been launched which is expected to add over 5,000 new members to the rolls of that conservation organization in Michigan.

Application forms are available from the Michigan Audubon Society, 7000 N. Westnedge Ave., Kalamazoo, Mich., 49001, or the Detroit Audubon Society, 814 West Seven Mile Rd., Detroit, Mich. 48203.

As an added incentive for joining the Society during the campaign, every new member may choose one of a pair of full-color signed lithographs by two of America's leading wildlife artists: "Kirtland's Warbler", painted by the famous ornithologist-artist Guy Coleleach; and "Butterfly-Weed", by Anne Ophelia Dowden, outstanding botanical artist.

'On a Clear Day' may be the last musical in captivity

Paramount Pictures Presents a Howard W. Koch-Alan Jay Lerner PRODUCTION, "On a Clear Day You Can See Forever," directed by Vincente Minnelli, produced by Koch, music by Burton Lane and screenplay and lyrics by Lerner from their Broadway musical, music arranged and conducted by Nelson Riddle. Panavision and technicolor. Rated G. At the Americana with the following cast: Barbra Streisand, Yves Montand, Bob Newhart, Larry Blyden, Simon Oakland, Jack Nicholson and John Richardson.

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Drama Critic

The jury is still out on extra-sensory perception and so is the jury on Barbra Streisand's acting ability. So far, cast as Fanny Brice and Dolly Levi, Miss Streisand has played Miss Streisand twice in different costumes and in Alan Jay Lerner screen adaption of his Broadway musical, "On a Clear Day You Can See Forever," her name may be Daisy Gamble, but her character is still Barbra Streisand.

This, however, is insufficient to explain the regression scenes, when, under hypnosis, Daisy recalls a previous existence in 19th century London as a determined social climber named Melinda.

Miss Streisand, it is alleged, is a talented mimic. Either she is such or she really can act after all, for her interpretation of the English beauty is flawless, both in voice and manner.

Lerner has stripped most of the musical comedy aspects from his work; gone are all the chorus numbers and most of the dancing; what remains is a greatly modified plot and the more important numbers from the Lerner-Burton Lane score, sung exclusively by Miss Streisand and Yves Montand as the doctor who discovers her previous lives while hypnotizing her to determine if she really has esp.

Lerner's shift of the modern plot is a bit more perplexing. Montand falls in love with Melinda while utterly rejecting the plebeian Daisy and, after the storm breaks about the new Bridey Murphy, Daisy, accidentally learning that she is Melinda, rejects the doctor telling him she won't allow her mind to be used as a motel.

Lerner, however, changes his mind about whether he will let Daisy wind up with her doctor and composes by announcing that they will be wed in a future existence.

Yves Montand introduces to American audiences the voice that has made him one of Europe's top singers in such Lerner-Lane hits as "Melinda," "Come Back To Me," and the title tune, while Miss Streisand is still worth the price of admission alone to hear her sing, "What Did I Have."

"On a Clear Day," is not a joyous as the state version, but it is somewhat more thoughtful and just as regarding. And it bears the touch of that master of musicals "Vincente Minnelli." If you believe the trades, musicals are a dying breed, so hurry, hurry, folks—it may be the last one in captivity.

Hetu will make first appearance

Pierre Hetu, new associate conductor of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will make his first appearance on the Symphony's regular subscription series Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium.

The concert will be Hetu's first with the Detroit Symphony since becoming associate conductor though he has led the Symphony on two previous occasions.

His Thursday evening program will consist of the J.C. Bach Symphony in D major, Opus 18, No. 4, the Roussel "Bacchus et Ariane" ballet suite No. 2, and the Tchaikovsky "Manfred" Symphony.

Van Buren enrollment rises

Enrollment in Van Buren Public Schools this year stands at 7,330 students. This is an increase of 237 over the 1969-70 school year enrollment, Dale E. Kaulitz, schoolsuperintendent, announced Monday.

The school's enrollment count is made on the fourth Friday after the start of the school year and it is required by the Michigan Department of Education in determining State Aid for the Van Buren School District.

The student count by grade this year and compared with 1969-70 is as follows:

Kindergarten, 518 against 557; first grade, 576 against 567; second grade, 564 against 538; third grade, 554 against 582; fourth grade, 582 to 553; fifth grade, 560 to 560; special education, 29 against 29; seventh grade, 615 to 594; eighth grade, 623 to 549; ninth grade, 596 against 577; tenth grade, 577 to 551; eleventh grade, 517 to 478; and twelfth grade, 427 to 390.

Torch Drive chairman names area chairmen

Mrs. Raymond J. Florian, 14440 Elwell Rd., Torch Drive division chairman for the Belleville-Van Buren Township area, has named her four Area Chairmen who will assist her in enrolling, training, and directing volunteers for the 22nd Annual United Foundation campaign here.

They are Mrs. Melvin Humphrey, 46679 Ayres St.;

Mrs. James Richendollar, 508 Columbia St.; Mrs. Gary Beckley, 12500 Lake Pointe Pass; and Mrs. George Schweigert, 46716 Ayres St.

The areas in which the above women are chairmen are in turn divided into neighborhoods which have chairmen enroll and train the "Door Belle" volunteers.

The 1970 Torch Drive will raise money for the 1970 operating budgets of nearly 200 health and community services in the Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb Torch Drive area.

A leaflet explaining where every dollar contributed last year is being spent will be presented to each household visited.

UPHILL CLIMB - Trailing teammate Jon Cross at this point, Belleville's Phil Combs stepped on the gas and bolted in front to place first for the Tigers against nonleague rival, Cherry Hill. Belleville emerged the meet winner, snapping Cherry Hill's victory string at five.

Plymouth rocks Belleville, 26-0

Tigers blanked by Rocks

By MIKE HENDRICKS

If the Belleville Tigers expect to do anything in the Suburban Six Conference this year they had better shift gears pretty soon! After last Friday night's dismal showing against conference rival, Plymouth the Tigers face an uphill battle with much tougher opponents yet to come.

The Tigers are now 1-2 for the season with their lone win coming at the season opener against Wayne Memorial. In that game the Tigers blasted Wayne 28 to 6, since that game the Belleville gridders have slid drastically, first falling to Robichaud 14 to 12 and then to Plymouth, 28 to 0.

Coach Keith Emerson is clearly disappointed with his team's showing of the past two weeks. "We just can't seem to get the people to do what is required of them," he said.

"What we are lacking most is toughness and discipline. I think we can get that by building a program to improve our material."

The past week has been a costly one for what material Belleville has. Dan Smith, a starting guard and the team's punter was knocked out of the Plymouth game with a knee injury. The seriousness of the injury is not yet known. Smith is presently a doubtful starter for Friday's Redford Union game. John Myers, a 160 pound backup guard was lost earlier in the week when he broke his leg in practice.

The Tigers displayed the same tendency to throw away any breaks that came their way as they did in the Robichaud game.

In the opening minutes of the first quarter, Al Vandecar creamed a punt receiver on the Plymouth 36 yard line. Vandecar's tackle jarred the ball loose and the 140 pound senior end pounced on it to give Belleville an early shot at the goal.

Van de car's efforts went for naught as the Tiger offense was unable to get any closer than the six yard line where immediately fumbled the ball away.

Carlson humbles Romulus

Oh, woe is Romulus! After Friday's 38-0 shellacking by Gibraltar Carlson the Eagle's can look forward to visiting always tough Walled Lake Western.

Western has a reputation for always coming up with a strong football squad and its 1970 model is no exception.

According to coach George Pratt his Eagles will have to stop Western's star runner, Paul Christianson if they are to pull off an upset.

"In the Carlson game we looked bad, we were real weak up the middle and they were double teaming our linebackers effectively," Pratt commented. "They also gave their passer exceptional coverage."

Passing really hurt the Eagles in their encounter with the boys from Carlson. Rick Cole showed them what an All-State candidate looks like as he scored two touchdowns and ran two conversions for a total of 16 points for his day's work.

Passing was also the only way the Eagles were able to move the ball with any success as quarterbacks Ken McMann and Virgil Smith teamed up to hit on eight of their 19 attempts for 154 (Continued on Page 14)

The first time Plymouth was able to keep the ball in its possession for three consecutive plays, the Rocks took advantage of the opportunity. On the Rock's third play from scrimmage, Carl Herter bolted through the middle of the line for an electrifying 68 yard touchdown run. The Rocks made the point after good and they were on their way with a 7-0 advantage.

Once again on the last play of the second period Plymouth scored on a nine yard touchdown pass from Gregg LaMirands to Dan Schmunk. They converted the extra point.

Herter came back in the second half for another touchdown trot, this time he swept Belleville's left end behind a wave of blockers as he went the final 20 yards untouched.

The next Plymouth six pointer came in the early moments of the fourth quarter when quarterback La Mirands hit Dan Chopp with a 34 yard touchdown pass to give the Rocks their final margin.

The offensive story for Belleville was Garrard Pettus as the 170 pound halfback accumulated 90 of his teams 142 yards.

Defensively, the Tigers didn't hamper the visiting Rocks much as they ripped them off for 241 yards on the ground with much of the yardage coming on 11, 10 and 17 yard bursts.

Coach Emerson will attempt to get some air into Belleville's deflated balloon in time for their second conference tilt at Redford Union. The game begins at 8 p.m.

Ready for a truce

By TOM MOORADIAN

Those Wayne Zebras really know how to subdue their "enemies". They use "love and affection."

There we were armed with about 40 sharp pencils, ready for each and every miscue at Friday night's Wayne Memorial and Dearborn High Football game just eager and waiting for someone to do something.

And what do we get?

"We dedicate this game," said the voice over the loud-speaker, "to the sports editor of the Daily Eagle, Tom Mooradian."

Now how could anyone - even a "dirty ole man" like myself pound out anything "bad" about Wayne after that?

Oh, but that's not all.

They mellow you up with beautiful music, played by one of the best if not the best - band in the state, the marching Wayne Memorial Zebras.

And after the music they frost it with cake. Really. Up comes Mrs. Len Natkowski, wife of Wayne's assistant football coach, and offers you especially made home-baked coffee cake.

"Please, Mr. Mooradian," she coos, "This was specially made for you."

You are, of course, suspicious of the offering. You wait and see if the others in the Press Box are also eating the offering. And as they take their share, you decide it's safe.

And as the Zebras continue their slaughter of Dearborn - whipping them thoroughly, 37-15, you can hear Mrs. Natkowski say: "Mr. Mooradian, Len Loves his steaks medium rare."

Okay, so I have to declare bankruptcy in order to pay off those dozen or so steaks I lost, but, gee, it was worth it. Really.

Now I am ready for a truce.

Here's a big asset

Garden City West football statistician Jim Shoemaker who also serves as the Tigers' assistant swimming coach has been a busy fellow this week.

Though he didn't have time to compute the stats on the Garden City West and Schafer football game - he had a very good reason. There's a new addition to the family and he's Kent Shoemaker who was born last Friday.

And seldom does one hear a coach give his third and fourth string teams credit for a varsity victory, but coach Bob Lusk over at John Glenn feels this week's triumph over defending Northwest Suburban Conference champ, Thurston, belongs in part to his "Gold Squad" made up of the reserves.

Lusk sees it this way: "Our Gold Squad really did a fine job during scrimmage getting our varsity in shape for last Friday's game. They kept the varsity on its toes all week long and because of it, the varsity was ready for Thurston."

"All I can say is that we played our best game of the season against Thurston," Lusk added.

Now if only the "Gold Squad" can do a similar bit of work to get the Varsity ready for North Farmington, the team picked to win the conference championship.

Romulus Junior High romps

Romulus Junior High, led by quarterback Mike Tomblin, went on a rampage last week and whalloped Dearborn Heights Hoston 36-0 for their sixth straight win over a span of two years.

Tomlin scored on runs of nine and 16 yards and passed to Kurt Lenderman for one of the two-point conversion. Other Romulus scores were contributed by Elmer Campagne, on a three-yard plunge and by 225-pound full back Mike Wade who scored on a 16-yard run and added three point after. Donnie Moore, from 13-yards out, scooped from the other Romulus TD.

Romulus defense also proved tough as it surrendered only three first downs throughout the lopsided match.

Chiefs scalp Carleton

The Huron High Chiefs are ready to take on anyone now after their third consecutive win of the season.

In Friday night's encounter with Carleton Airport the Chiefs recorded a 12-0 victory to preserve their unprecedented three game winning streak.

Now the Chiefs are preparing to do battle with the Blissfield gridders in their third league game of the season.

The Blissfield bunch have not been able to win a ballgame, standing 0-3 for the season and that is just the way Huron would like to keep it, at least for another week.

Despite his opponent's record, Coach Lee Smeltzer is not about to head for Blissfield this Friday over confident.

"They're big this year and they are always tough at home," he said of Blissfield.

Huron Chiefs scalp Carleton, 12-0

Clark and Tom Umin came up with key tackles when they were needed most during those precarious moments in the third period.

True to their form, the Chiefs struck for their 12 points in exciting fashion.

Early in the second quarter, with the rain beginning to fall and the Chiefs with fourth down and 24 yards to go for a first down and a touchdown, Butch Suemnick hit Jamie Hinojosa in the end zone for the six pointer. The point after failed.

Two plays later the Chiefs had the ball again after Frank Cameron claimed an Airport fumble as his property. Then, just seconds after their first strike, Dregansky fired a 50 yard pass in the pouring rain to Hinojosa for a second six pointer.

Two touchdown passes are quite a lot for a sophomore end to score in one game, but Hinojosa had another one, this time a 20 yarder from quarterback Suemnick that was called back because of a Huron infraction.

Dregansky led Huron's rushing attack with 87 yards in 21 carries. Halfback Umin also picked valuable yardage.

In three games, has netted 232 yards in 50 carries. In addition to running Dregansky can pass with equal ability. So far he has connected on two of this three aeriels good for 85 yards and one touchdown.

When he's not carrying the ball, Dregansky has been moonlighting as a defensive linebacker. He has proven invaluable as a defensive signal-caller especially when the going gets rough and the opposition is making touchdown noises, as has been the case in two of the Huron's three games.

Dregansky also leads the team with 31 solo tackles to his credit.

The versatile athlete also handles the Huron's kicking chores and so far he has hit on one 23 yard field goal.

Huron also has a fine field general in senior Suemnick, who has three TD tosses to his credit and always manages to come through the chips are down.

And then there is Hinojosa, the sophomore end who has caught five passes for 163 yards and 18 points in his first year as a starter.

Blissfield does have a problem. If they stop Dregansky's running then what will they do about Umin and Chuck Inman who have also proven that they can carry that ball a long way when called upon? If the opponents can stop Suemnick passes to Hinojosa they will have to watch Dregansky very closely as the can fling the ball with accuracy too.

The Blissfield game is there and will start at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

-Taxpayers ask IRS-

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) A fellow at the place where I work after school says I can stop income tax withholding on my pay if I want to. Is that right?

A) Yes, you may stop income tax withholding on your earnings if you owed no Federal income tax last year and expect to owe none this year. This is done by completing Form W-4 and giving it to your employer. If you earn less than $1725 this year you won't have to pay tax.

Q) The $70 payment I sent in several weeks ago was not deducted from the tax bill you sent me. What should I do?

Cougars score two wins

With their best effort of the season spurring them on, the Belleville Cougars will travel to Northville for their Western Suburban Junior Football League encounters this weekend. The first game will begin at 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Cougars, playing before a Homecoming crowd last Saturday, defeated the Ann Arbor Junior Wolverines in the freshman game, 12-6, and in the varsity clash, 28-26, while tying the junior varsity encounter, 0-0.

The results left Belleville with a 3-1 freshman record, 0-2-2 junior varsity mark and a 1-3 varsity standing.

TIGERSON THE RUN — Belleville harriers Jon Cross (in front) and Phil Combs set the pace in last night's nonleague dual meet against Cherry Hill. Combs nipped his teammate at the wire for a personal victory and the two Tiger runners placed 1-2 in leading their team past the previously undefeated Spartans.

ALMOST THERE — Belleville runner, Gary Reffitt heads for the finish line for a fifth place finish in the Tigers' recent meet with Cherry Hill. The Tigers are now 6-0 on the season.

Sports Meridian

Mrs. Don Ellis, wife of the former president of the Romulus Little League, wonders how come the Western Suburban Football League won't let sports writers mention the names of little leaguers in their stories.

Met up with Mrs. Ellis while shopping last week and she said "It's a shame, some of these boys really do an outstanding job and deserve some sort of recognition, don't you think?"

We agree — but we can't do anything about it.

What we can't understand (among other things) is how come Dearborn Heights Little Leaguers get their name mentioned in stories written about them — and they play in the same league.

Who's cheating?

Title I has aides

The Van Buren Public School Districts Title I staff is fortunate to have the invaluable services of Parent-Aides again this year. Parent-Aides support elementary students' efforts to improve their reading skills by meeting with students twice weekly Mrs. Ella Wollery, director announced.

During these sessions, they: (1) review Home Reading Prescriptions, (2) Follow-through on specially prepared assignments developed by classroom teachers and (3) Help build student self-esteem.

"We are doubly fortunate in having two qualified teachers join the Title I staff for 1970-71. Both are qualified teachers and are competent in helping elementary teachers in target area schools in all areas of developmental reading," said Mrs. Wollery.

Remember what you decided last January 13?

Wasn't that the day your dried-out nasal passages really got to you? Your peeling wallpaper took a turn for the worst, and your last favorite plant collapsed into the dust? Didn't you say something like "I've had it! We've got to get some humidity into this house!"

Well, this heating season, why not play it smart. Be comfortable from the beginning! All your dry-air problems can be solved with a West Bend Automatic Humidifier. That's all. It doesn't even cost much. And just think, all that spring-fresh humidified comfort will feel like a winter vacation.

PTA council sets program

Committee assignments and general plans for the coming year occupied the Romulus Area PTA Council at its meeting Tuesday, Oct. 29.

Gathering at the new board of education office on Grant Rd., representatives of seven of the eight local units approved holding an installation of Officers Banquet following the spring elections. Mrs. MaryAnn Treder and Mrs. Betty Hill accepted co-chairmanship.

Fran Peire, suggested cooperation between units for several district-wide programs to be held in the new senior high auditorium. They would replace the local program for the month they were held. Topics would be chosen to suit interests of all units.

A member initiated a discussion relative to alleged drug abuses at the secondary school levels. After others also voiced concern, a committee was appointed to meet with school administrators to discuss the problem.

Committee members are: Mrs. Marjory Butler, Mrs. Connie Charobee, Mrs. Elvira Cline, Mrs. Glenna Waddell, Mrs. Henriett Ellis, and Mrs. Carol Bales.

A discussion was held concerning meeting dates; it was decided that units would report before the next meeting whether they preferred the last Monday or the last Tuesday of each month to be meeting night.

Following announcements of various community meetings, delegates were served coffee and cakes and guided on a tour of the building.

Jaycees plan for party

The Belleville Jaycee Club announced Monday that its annual "Millionaire's Party" will be held Oct. 17 at 8 p.m.

The affair will be held at the P.N.H. Hall, located at 45476 Harris Rd.

Tickets will be $3.50 per adult and may be procured at the door, or by calling Joseph McLeod, Jaycee president, at 654-6783.

Canada is made up of 10 provinces and two territories.

Consumers Power asks gas moratorium

by JIM CARRAVALLAH

The Consumers Power will ask the Michigan Public Service Commission for permission to place a moratorium on all new gas commitments in its service area, according to an official report released yesterday.

"Consumers Power Company asked the Michigan Public Service Commission for authorization to impose additional restrictions on the sale of natural gas and to refuse new customers beyond those to whom commitments for service in 1970 and 1971 have already been made," said the official release.

The new restrictions would mean that no new residential, commercial or industrial customers will be added to the company's natural gas system.

It also means that no new residential space heating loads will be added to the system.

Finally, the restrictions mean that no additional commercial or industrial gas loads will be added to the company's gas system.

The release said that the company faces a supply versus demand problem since the supply is not sufficient to take care of the expected demand. Rather than hurt existing customers in an attempt to gain new ones, the company has decided to place a moratorium on all new gas commitments.

Earl Klompars, secretary of the Michigan Public Service

Commission said that the request was received yesterday but that no public hearing date has been set.

"I would hope it's sometime in late October," said Klompars, "but I couldn't be sure exactly when it will be."

He was asked whether the company can legally cut off any new service.

"I would say, legally, 'no', but it's a touchy thing," said the secretary. "It would be foolhardy for the company to add customers at the expense of the present customers."

He explained that Consumers must go before the Public Service Commission because it is a public utility. Consumers is now caught in a bind between obligations to future customers as a franchised public utility and obligations to present customers.

"I wouldn't say one was any more important than the other," said Klompars.

The release from the company places the blame for the move on "unrealistic federal pricing policies" which "discouraged the producing companies from prospecting for new reserves to be sold ultimately to Consumers Power and other gas distribution utilities."

The release said that the problem is not a new one, but one that has gone for more than a decade and is reaching its peak just now. "During this period," according to the statement, "the gas producers invested elsewhere."

The company made it clear that applications for new gas service will be accepted. These may be used for consideration of the order of service if and when the company finds new reserves.

Communities with great growth potential - such as Westland - will face the greatest problem since these will be the areas where gas will be requested most often.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

At times, some people confuse the distinction between courage and cowardice. Courage does not always imply an absence of fear; nor does cowardice always imply an excess of fear. Common sense linked with conscience is involved in the distinction.

For example, some people think it takes courage to speed past a car on a hill or curve. Screaming tires, shrieking voices, swerving cars, and often head on collisions point an accusing finger toward that kind of courage. Since common sense did not prevail, and since there was a lack of conscience for a possible tragedy, are such drivers really courageous or cowardly?

Courage with a conscience gives us strength to face distinctions between right and wrong, between the things we should do and should not do. At times, it may even take courage to be classed as a coward. But as long as common sense is used with a clear conscience, cowardice is glorified beyond that of courage.

Life requires boldness. Boldness requires courage. But courage should never create tragedy or destruction when such catastrophes can be avoided.

PTA to host meeting

Teachers at Mt. Pleasant Elementary School will be the guests of the PTA Executive Board for a dinner, prior to their first general meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 13.

Mrs. Glenna Wadell, PTA president, reported that an open house is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m.

Following opening introductions, parents will visit classrooms to become acquainted with their children's teachers, stated Mrs. Wadell.

"We hope to get people interested in their schools," she said, adding that there were several projects to be undertaken this year.

More kitchen equipment was her first concern and she also hopes to provide carpeting for the school library through the effort of her group. Dessert and coffee will be served following the meeting.

ALGER, HAZEL W., Age 81; 1123 Maybourn, Dearborn. Mrs. Alger passed away on Oct. 5, 1970 at Parkview General Hospital. Dear mother of Mrs. George (Corabelle) Meredith and Mrs. Robert (Hazel Mae) Percy. Also survived by 6 Grandchildren and 17 Great-Grandchildren. Mrs. Alger was an active member of Eastern Star-Dearborn No. 421. Funeral arrangements will be held at 1 p.m., Thursday-Oct. 8 at Howe-Peterson Funeral Home, 22546 Michigan Ave. in Dearborn.

BURR, MARGUERITE MARY of 12394 Wahrman in Romulus, age 77, passed away October 3, 1970 at the Annapolis Hospital. Services will be Wednesday, October 7 at 11 a.m. from Baum Funeral Home, with Rev. Lonnie England officiating, burial at Romulus Cemetery. Survived by children Florence Schultz of Detroit, Mildred Keller of Arizona, James Burr of Wayne, Jim McGhen of Romulus and Floyd Burr of Warren, Mary Ann Ryznar of Romulus, Virginia Martin and Robert McGhen both of California, 35 grand children and 22 great grand children.

CHARLES H. CARPENTER, M.D., born in Belleville, Michigan on April 10, 1901. He passed away on September 18, 1970. Dr. Carpenter is survived by his wife, Lucia Porter Carpenter and his two children, Charles M. Carpenter, M.D., and Mrs. H.D. Dean M.D.

Dr. Carpenter moved from Cincinnati, Ohio, to Glendale, California, in 1930. In 1937, he built the Carpenter Medical Building at 1132 No. Brand Blvd. where he continued the practice of medicine until his recent illness.

Dr. Carpenter devoted his life solely to the church, his family, and his medical profession. He loved his medical specialty which was his pride and life's hobby. He was a member of the Church of Christ, the National Eclectic Medical Society, and the Los Angeles Breakfast Club.

Dr. Carpenter's three surviving brothers are Clarence J. Albert B., and Edward W. A sister Alice Carpenter Oakley predeceased him in 1952. Dr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Carpenter flew to Glendale, California for the memorial service held September 21, 1970.

Memorial services were conducted at Kiefer and Eyerick Funeral Home by Dr. W. B. West, Jr., Dean of the Harding College Graduate School of Religion, Memphis, Tennessee. Dr. West was assisted by Dr. Hugh M. Tiner of the Long Beach Church of Christ and former president of Pepperdine College.

Interment was at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.
